
LifeNotes Fall 2017

Week of October 29, 2017 -- We will resume in January 2018

Colossians 4:2-6

Getting Started...

Pray for those who are feeling 'burned out'... that they would feel God's presence and relinquish control to Him.

Getting to Know One Another...

What was your best job? Your worst? What's your dream job?

What is one thing that stood out to you from Sunday's sermon? Why?

Pastor Jack said devoted prayer is watchful, thankful, and includes petitions for others. What does the word devoted connote to you?

How would you describe your own prayer life?

More...

Read through Colossians 4:2-4

Do it three times in a row. Wait one minute between each reading. Contemplate what you're hearing.

What stands out to you all now that you've heard this three times?

Do you think your group could pray for 20 minutes during your small group meeting time? Are you willing to try it?

Discuss what items, people, and objectives might be included in this prayer time.

Now do it. Pray.

Read Colossians 4:5-6

Paul exhorts the Colossians to be wise in the way they act towards outsiders. What does Paul mean by outsiders?

Read Ephesians 2:12 When you think of your life when you were alienated from God, how does that encourage you to be strategic in how you act towards others?

Read 1 Corinthians 9:12-22 and Ephesians 5:15-16. How do these scriptures relate to Colossians 4:5-6?

What might be some action steps for you to take to live this missional kind of life that Paul is advocating? As a group? As a family? Individually?

Taking It Home...

Would the world know that you are no longer an outsider? Examine your words, actions, and deeds as you commit to living a missional life.
